We would gently but firmly remind the Hiawatha Disputch, that the Chief (if it refers to it as the "local paper") did not say a word in opposition to the Temperance ticket of White Cloud, or any other town in the County. The only reference made in these columns to the Temperance ticket of White Cloud, was by our correspondent at that place, and that was in favor of the ticket. We have spoken against the prohibitory amendment, and against ramping frauds doing business under the garb of emperance, but never a word against temperance.

DISTRICT No. 60, DONIFHAN CO., KANSAS, April 6, 1880. Mr. Editor:—The public school of this District closed on last Saturday, a term of seven months. It would be unjust to allow the closing performances to pass unnoticed. I will therefore give you a brief listory of our closing exercises.

to pass unnoticed. I will therefore give you a brief history of our closing exercises. The fore part of the day was occupied in the usual examination of classes. After enjoying a sumptuous repast, the pupils of the school entertained the large audience of friends with declamations, dialogues, and music, which were well received, and highly applanded. Then came a treat, administered at the hands of the teacher, consisting of candy and rewards, which was enthusiastically enjoyed, especially better that the falls.

wards, which was enthusiastically enjoyed, especially by the little folks.

The following pupils were then awarded premi-ums: For receiving the most credit marks, Mary Trant. For excellent spelling, Martha A. Trant and Viola J. Wykert. Perfect in attendance, Walter Moutgomery, Jennie May Wykert, Esther Fleming, and Lydia Wykert. Remarks of approbation were then delivered by Messrs. James M. Trant, H. C. Wykert, R. Montgomery, and Joseph Walker, all ex-pressing themselves as highly pleased with the man-agement of the school.

Now, Mr. Editor, I will simply say, in conclusion, that a better District is hard to find. The patrons of the school favor the advancement of education, and work in harmony with the instructor of their children; and further, that the District is under the efficient control of a School Board composed of gentlemen.

Respectfully, E. R. Westfall.

E. R. WESTFALL, Tencher. Perhaps people in some parts of the County may think or have thought that our small town was en-tirely obliterated. We write to the Kansus Chief they bought Louis Degginger's stock of dry goods and groceries. They have been receiving fresh supplies of goods every week, for the past month. They have also bought a large stock of drugs and paints, which will add much to their trade. We wish the which will add much to their trade. We wish the boys success in every branch of business.

Our friend, Louis Degginger, has retired from the mercantile business. He will engage in the banking business soon. He has made a stroke since he located in Doniphan County.

John and James Sparks are selling goods in Degginger's old stand. The boys are new hands at the business, and we don't know how they will succeed, but hope they will do well.

James Browning, the old staunch, reliable grain merchant, still continues in the produce business. The time has been when he was cramped financially; pins again.

Highland Station seems to be the centre of gravity, if you may please to so call it, for the cattle shippers. Many car loads are billed every week. G. B. Nurum and H. D. Guthrie shipped eight car loads from here. Saturday. They will sell at St. Louis, if the market is good; but if it is weak, they will go to Chicago or Buffalo.

Dr. J. W. Brownlee. of Domphan, paid our town a visit, last Saturday; also Dr. Lindsley, of Fanning Station, was here, looking for a location. It is more than probable the Doctor will locate among us.

The lola school is under the management of James Jackson. He gives satisfaction. He is a model young man, and attends to his business closely.

Everybody in this part of the County is almost converted to be Blaine men. I mean that those who were anti-Blaine, are Blaine men now.

There are a few men in this neighborhood making arrangements to go to Colorado, the coming summer. Our advice to them is, to stay in old Domphan County, read the Kunaus Chief, and they will be richer and wiser, at the end of the year. [Them's our sentiments.—Pr.]

Spring Grove Items.

The wheat generally looks very nicely.

N. B. Drummond has moved into his new house. We are glad to have our old friends with us again. Mr. Trimmer's family all have the measles.

Last Saturday, being Miss Bettis. Saunders' birthday, a few of her friends were invited to spend the evening with her. Bettie, in her usual cheerful way, made everything pleasant. She was the recipient of many valuable presents, too numerous to mention. All secured to enjoy themselves, and went away wishing Miss Bettie a long and happy life.

We received a call from our old friend, John Cobb, who returned from California last Tucsday. John and his brother Jesse went to California in the year. 1874. They stayed together there for several years. Jesse went from thure to Washington Territory, and while there, was taken sick, and died. Shortly after his brother's death, John came home, but returned again in March. We are glad to welcome him back to Spring Grove again. He has bought a farm, and intends to remain in Kansas.

Mrs. T. Drunmond has been very sick, but her health is improving some.

Arthur Suencer is having the chills

Several of the farmers are improving their farms, by planting fruit trees. We think this a capital idea. No farm is complete without an orchard.

Hiss Edna Davis was visiting friends in Troy, last week.

Mr. Winzer is having more of his land broke,

Par Ballow on the War Path.—Everybody in St. Joseph knows Pat Barlow, the half demented peddler. Yesterday morning he was in his little-store on South Third sireet, when the lady from whom he rents his house came in and wanted the rent, he being somewhat in arrears. He told her he had no money, whereupon she replied that he must either pay up or leave the house. Words ensued, when Pat seized an ax, which was near, and made an on-shaught upon the lady, but she so dextrevisely warded off the blows, that while her injuries are severe they are not considered dangerous. The arm with which she protected her face was almost severed at the wrist. Her screams brought assistance, and Pat was quieted.—St. Joe Herald, 10th.

party were arrested by constance George Frisue, and fined by Justice Trevett. We will withhold their names, and hope they will not disgrace themselves this way again.

[We thought there never were such disgraceful rows in towns without salooas !-Pr.]

John Searies had his wagon packed, last week, and was ready to go toward the setting sun, when, on the morning fixed for his departure, he bought a nice little eighty aere farm, two miles south east of town. [Sensible.-Pr.]
